

Dear Partner,

I would like to ask for your kind cooperation for the case of ordering remote work due to a potential corona virus epidemic, in order to be able to continue business smoothly.

As from today, we request you to send us all your ordinary postal matters (invoices, letters, contracts, etc.) also online in pdf format to the following e-mail address:

titkarsag@bert.hu

If you have any questions or if you need help, please turn to our Central Secretariat at the 1-577-8439 telephone number or to you BE ZRt contact person.

The invoices and other printed matters issued by Budapesti Erőmű Zrt will be sent to you also electronically. Please accept and treat these documents as originals. Of course, we will send you also the original copies as soon as possible.

Furthermore, I wish to inform you that as from today, keeping the interests of our employees and partners in mind, our Company does not support personal meetings. Exceptions from this are the on-site works, and our people can be contacted also by telephone and e-mail. In purchasing and warehousing matters, our contact persons designated in the purchase orders and contracts will remain available at the contact details provided in these documents.

If you enter the premises of our company, you are requested to be particularly mindful of keeping the basic hygienic requirements and taking the necessary precautions (frequent hand wash, use of disinfectants also for your personal belongings, other protective gears).

We further inform you that as from 16 March 2020, any natural person may enter the sites of our Company only after the measurement of his body temperature by our gatekeeper service with a no touch thermometer and if such measurement shows a body temperature of less than 38°C. If someone's body temperature reaches this value or if he denies the measurement, he will automatically be refused to enter. For more details about this measure, please see the informative matter provided at the entrance gates of our sites.

If you have any comments on the above or if you see any problems with regard to the fulfilment of your contractual or commercial order obligations, please indicate it immediately to your contractual contact person.

Thanking you for your kind understanding and cooperation,

Best regards,

András Vinkovits
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
